The steamer China, of the Pacific Mail line, arrived in port here yesterday from Yokohama en route to San Francisco. She left Yokohama on the 16th inst. The China brings hither 172 Chinese and 20 Japanese, but no Europeans.

LOCAL NEWS.

Cool these mornings even if the thermometer does show only 60 degrees.

Over 24,000 bags of sugar came to port here, Saturday and Sunday via inter-island steamers.

Mr. C. A. Spreckels left on the China for San Francisco today. Mr. Radolf remained in town.

A neat fence has been placed around the Sailor's Home on Alakea street.

There is a reception on board the U. S. F. S. Philadelphia this evening.

The Sons of St. George will give one of their very pleasant dances at their Hall to night.

A number of people were present at the departure of the China. The band was in attendance.

Wilton Gale, William Dawe, William Funkegan, John Luster and J. Burke arrived by the schooner Aloha from San Francisco.

Weather today most pleasant and the Raymond and Whitcomb tourists have opportunity to get an every day sample of "Paradise of the Pacific" weather.

Captain Houdlette, commander of the O. S. S. Australia, reports passing the British ship Dominion on March 19th. The ship was bound to Nanaimo, B. C. in ballast.

One of the sailors on board the bktn. S. G. Wilder was injured Saturday by being crushed by a sliding load of sugar. Captain McNeill had the man immediately removed to the Queen's Hospital.

Tourists are requested to remember that the subsidy granted by the regularly elected Legislature to the Paradise of the Pacific was stopped by the p. g. powers, but the paper is still given tourists gratuitously.

Marshal Hitchcock will seemingly be required to again return to Kanai and display his powers as arbitrator. Another strike amongst the Japanese laborers is in progress on plantations on that island.

Mr. Henry C. Lyon the gentlemanly and well versed tourist agent, connected with Messrs. Raymond and Whitcomb of Boston, arrived by the steamer Australia in charge of a small-sized group of sight-seers who desire to see the Paradise of the Pacific.

The C. & A. S. S. Warrimoo arrived in port here yesterday morning, 8 days from Vancouver, B. C. en route to the Colonies. She sailed again on her voyage at 6 p. m. The steamer brought to this port nine passengers in the cabin, and mail and news dates to the 16th inst.

A concert will be given at the Kawaiahao Church, by the Kamehameha School boys on the 7th of April, for the benefit of their own dear selves. There is now active preparation by the boys under competent instructors to make the affair most pleasant and interesting.

There was some little water front talk yesterday when the China arrived and did not come into port. Everything from politics to small-pox was given as a cause, but the real reason was, on account of the C. & A. S. Warrimoo occupying the China's place at the Mail dock.

Stowaways are becoming, some what, obnoxious to the officers of the Canadian and Australian S. S. Co. no less than five being found on the Warrimoo. The pains and penalties for the landing of a stowaway is "a fear of hell" which keeps the captains on all lines of steamers in order.

ALONG THE RHINE. MUSCLE AND MUSIC

Grand Views and Charming Lecture.

"London," an illustrated lecture, given some short time ago at Kawaiahao Church by Mrs. M. L. Gans introduced that lady to the general public and also the beautiful slides which illustrate her well delivered lectures on various themes. The second occasion, when Mrs. Gans displayed her ability as a capable and interesting lecturer was at the Y. M. C. A. H. B. on the 23rd inst. Then the English speaking people of the community were present in force to view the scenes and listen to the stories which are connected with that portion of "Vaterland" or Germany, situated along the banks of the Rhine. The lecturer and views were, as usual of high class character and the applause throughout testified to the appreciation of the audience. Space forbids a lengthened extract from the interesting lecture delivered by Mrs. Gans, or even to mention, as should be done, the accurate manipulation of the powerful lantern and reproduction of the pictures by the operator, Mr. Maurice suffice it to say that the audience were first shown Cologne and its famous Cathedral, thence to the city of Bonn, when Beethoven was born. Then followed in rapid succession beautiful pictures of places made famous in song, story and history, the fair lecturer acting as an accomplished courier en avant. Altogether one hundred and eight pictures were cast upon the canvas and every one present received full value for their patronage. The lecture, on the "Rhine," was repeated last Saturday evening at the Kawaiahao Church, to an audience composed of Hawaiians, Mr. W. L. Wilcox, the noted Legislative interpreter, interpreting the views from written notes by Mrs. Gans. The enthusiasm was great and the display gave satisfaction to the audience present.

The Japanese government has made a special issue of stamps in honor of the Imperial silver wedding.

Marshal Hitchcock is in town again. The Marshal does not look well and will proceed to Hawaii to-morrow by the Malulani.

Commander Nelson of the U. S. S. Adams departed today for San Francisco. The popular officer was covered with leis and nearly smothered in bouquets.

Capt. Tierney, a former resident and master mariner, who has long been engaged in trading among the South Sea islands is dead. He died of dropsy.

Dan Lyons' dancing school opened last Saturday evening. About sixty children attended and showed eagerness and willingness to learn the light fantastic steps.

Captain Garland of the brig Morning Star very kindly, and unsolicited, acknowledges receipt of copies of the Paradise of the Pacific, while at Jaluit of the Marshall Islands in the South Pacific.

It is rumored that a certain up town firm will be closed up by its creditors shortly. The liabilities are mentioned to be $42,000 of which $30,000 is due in San Francisco and the balance in Honolulu.

The arrivals, in Honolulu, from Vancouver, B. C., by the steamer Warrimoo were Mrs. M. E. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Parker, E. C. Washburne, J. Washburne, J. A. McCandless, Thomas Sheridan.

The Japanese firm Kimura has completed a good-sized warehouse in the rear of their store near the Custom House. The warehouse will principally be used for the storing of Japanese liquor of which they are large importers.

A Successful And Pleasant Combine.

From notice previously given in the HOLONA a small but critical number of people assembled together at the Skating Rink, Beretania street, on Saturday evening to witness the events which were set forth as an entertainment for the benefit of G. Walter Washington the well known colored instructor in boxing. The agency of writing was endorsed until about 8:30 when the overture commenced, and from thence on went fairly well, but not too "speedy." The "opening chorus" was sung by Morris and Johnson in a 3 round glove contest which was mild Hawaiian youth. If she don't follow in an excellent exhibition of club swinging, which received deserved applause. An announced "four round contest" for the "bantam" championship between M. Lancaster and A. Jackson, became five rounds on account of the referee not being able to give a decision and was the called a "draw." A though Lancaster was really entitled to a decision he having done the most leading. Dance if the well-known artistic ebg-dancer acquitted himself with grace and ability. A champion wrestling match would have been a blank but for the kindness of Willie Wilder who gave the audience pleasure by his tackling the champion Spencer, for a round or two for pure fun the bouts being very interesting. Jones, the proposed contestant for honors, was absent. A 6-sided 3 round "go" took place between Kaia and Pinao, two Hawaiians, after which the "Big Six" cut it loose in "a season of fun" and met comical action. The second part showed two of the Champion men, Rough and Sinclair, in a six-round bout which included some hard hitting but scientific. A shower, small, of coin, rewarded their efforts. The event of the evening and which everybody had waited for was the appearance of the noted light-weight Jimmy Barrington in a four-round "go" with the lofty, heavy, long-reach and hard-headed beneficiary. And it was an excellent contest, fit for every lover of what two professional men can do, in an honest wish to give patrons a good show, to see. Barrington would not be denied, his bally antagonist "mixed it" also, and the audience left with hearty applause for both and satisfied with the entertainment.
